9. General acknowledgments

Hereby I confirm that I am a politically independent and unbiased journalist, respect the freedom of speech and thought.
I have no pre-judicies with regard to Jobbik and the persons who represent it.
I will respect their opinions and will do my best to correctly recall them in the published product(s) as close as to their originally intended meaning as possible. I will use quotations in their entire context, will refrain from taking details out of their original environment thereby distorting their intended meaning.
While I reserve the right to form and express my own opinion about Jobbik, I will make clear that it is nothing but my subjective belief. I hereby also undertake to send the final draft of printed material or transcript of video based on the interview(s) 48 hours before they are disclosed to the public to the interviewee(s) by e-mail (address: info@jobbik.com) for acknowledgement.
I will give the interviewees a fair chance to make their own comments and remarks, to be respected and considered in the final published product.
